

Credits:
Getty Images

Holiday Shopping Boutique to benefit Peninsula Family Service

By Cathy O'Brien, San Jose Charity Examiner

The “Jingle and Mingle” holiday shopping boutique will be held on November 29, 2011 from 10:30am to 2pm at the Peninsula Golf and Country Club. This exciting fundraising shopping event will directly benefit the Peninsula Family Services. Hosted by the Hillsborough Auxiliary to Peninsula Family Service, the holiday shopping boutique will feature specialty items from local vendors and a luncheon at 12pm. All proceeds from ticket sales and 20% of boutique sales will go back to Peninsula Family Service.

Dana Morse, Co-Chair Jingle and Mingle: “We are so excited about our upcoming Jingle and Mingle event. It is always fun and well-attended, but this year we have some wonderful changes that will make it even livelier and personalize it as well. We are really focusing on keeping families healthy and happy this holiday season, and our new Fund a Family opportunity will support the effort.”

This year the annual “Jingle and Mingle” will not only raise money for Peninsula Family Service, it will offer guests the opportunity to Fund a Family in order to ensure a family in need will have a joyful holiday season.

Some of the vendors expected to be at this year’s Jingle and Mingle include: Books, Inc; Country Faire Candies; Designs by Desarie, Elizabeth Todd Designs, Kiki Bean & Bed Head Pajamas; Lobird; Maison de Belles Choses; MIJA Jewelry; Mindy Rosenberg Designs; and Mon Amie. Polka Dogs, Sassy Saks, Scout Bags, Smathers and Branson, Solvang Bakery, Stella & Dot, Studio Shop Annex, and UB Chic will also take part in Jingle and Mingle.

The Peninsula Gold and Country Club is located at 701 Madera Drive in San Mateo. Tickets are $65 and advance reservations are required to attend. To purchase tickets, please email Dana Morse at danaerinmorse@yahoo.com and put Jingle and Mingle in the subject line of your email.

To learn more about Peninsula Family Service, please visit peninsulafamilyservice.org