

Peninsula Family Service Campers Mark End of Summer

The campers held their end of summer celebration at Sunshine Gardens Elementary School last week.

- By Drew Himmelstein
- August 21, 2011

Beatryse Guzman, Jared Marmolejo, Alejandro Castillo and Daniel Garcilazo participate in Peninsula Family Service's Club Leo J. Ryan's 'End-of-Summer Celebration' August 12 in South San Francisco. Throughout the summer, school-age children from the program enjoyed learning through field trips and other fun activities. During the festivities, the children gave a special performance of several songs in both English and Spanish. Credit Marisa Binder/Peninsula Family Service

Photos

Add your photos & videos

Last week, campers from the Peninsula Family Service's Club Leo G. Ryan after school/summer program celebrated the end of summer at a ceremony at Sunshine Gardens Elementary School.

Parents and teachers came to watch students sing songs in English and Spanish and say goodbye to some students who had grown up in the program.

Thanks to the Peninsula Family Service for submitting these photos.